Mellow under the moonlight at WAM: Celebrating the opening of WAM@20: MN and Northern Spark

MINNEAPOLIS – WAM@20: MN (June 14 through September 7, 2014) is the third and final gallery installment of the yearlong celebration of twenty years for the Weisman Art Museum (WAM) in the iconic Gehry-designed building at the University of Minnesota. WAM@20 highlights 20 works x 20 years from the museum’s collection.

The WAM@20: MN exhibition opens the same night as Northern Spark and will celebrate the great people of Minnesota. WAM traditionally focuses on Minnesota artists or topics for summer exhibitions. This exhibition continues that tradition by featuring eighty works in four sections: Minnesota State Fair Votes, UMN Students’ Choice, Minnesota Artists, administered through the online site for Minnesota artists, mnartists.org, and individual selections by twenty Minnesota Notables (Ann Bancroft, Governor Mark Dayton, Jack El-Hai, Jon Hallberg, Kao Kalia Yang, Eric Kaler, Senator Amy Klobuchar, Chris Koza, Brenda Langton, Adam Linz, Fiona McCrae, Jeremy Messersmith, John Munson, Associate Justice Alan Page, Scott Pampuch, Peter Remes, Robyne Robinson, R. T. Rybak, Marla Spivak, and Mark Wheat).

Northern Spark, presented by Northern Lights.mn, is a citywide dusk-to-dawn arts festival. Weisman Art Museum will present projects along with University of Minnesota participants the Institute for Advanced Study, Northrop, Bell Museum of Natural History, Katherine E. Nash Gallery, U of M Department of Art, and University Dining Services.

The following projects will be presented at WAM on the night of June 14 (9:01 p.m.) to June 15 (5:26 a.m.):

Sacred Harp Singers
Presented by Northern Lights.mn
9:01 p.m. to 5:26 a.m. – Riverview Gallery
Sacred Harp is a uniquely American tradition that brings communities together to sing four-part hymns and anthems. Not affiliated with any denomination, Sacred Harp “singings” act to continue a tradition that is a living, breathing, and ongoing practice passed by generations of singers. All beginners and new comers are welcome to join in the fun. UMN student group Vocal U will perform with the Sacred Harp Singers.

The University of Minnesota is a proud partner of this year’s Northern Spark arts festival. By encouraging artistic collaboration across a variety of disciplines, the U is helping light the way to a more innovative and creative future. University department participants include the Institute for Advanced Study, Northrop, Weisman Art Museum, Bell Museum of Natural History, Katherine E. Nash Gallery, U of M Department of Art and University Dining Services.

ABOUT WAM
Since its origin in 1934, the Weisman Art Museum has been a teaching museum for the University of Minnesota. Today, education remains central to the museum’s mission to create art experiences that spark discovery, critical thinking, and transformation, linking the University and the community. The Weisman Art Museum is located at 333 East River Road, Minneapolis, on the University of Minnesota campus. Admission to exhibition galleries is always free.
