SPONSORS

Art Educators of Minnesota (AEM) is the only professional organization for educators in visual art and media arts for the state of Minnesota. AEM serves k-12 teachers, museum educators, arts organizations, higher education certification programs. AEM is an affiliate of the National Art Education Association. Learn more at aem-mn.org.

At the Department of Art, we believe that art has the power to transform our understanding of the world. Housed within the Regis Center for Art—a 145,000 square foot space dedicated to art production, exhibitions, and studio art education—the Department of Art offers instruction for graduate and undergraduate students in four areas of study: Drawing, Painting, and Printmaking; Interdisciplinary Art and Social Practice; Photography and Moving Images; and Sculpture and Ceramics. Learn more at art.umn.edu.

The Katherine E. Nash Gallery is a research laboratory for the practice and interpretation of the visual arts. We believe the visual arts have the capacity to interpret, critique and expand on all of human experience. Our internationally recognized exhibitions, publications, and scholarship foster a center of discourse on the practice of visual art and its relationship to culture and community—a place where we examine our assumptions about the past and suggest possibilities for the future. The gallery plays an indispensable role in the educational development of University of Minnesota students, faculty, staff, and the community. Learn more at nash.umn.edu.

Weisman Art Museum offers an educational and friendly museum experience, with a collection that features American Modernist art, ceramics, and traditional Korean furniture, all housed in the landmark building designed by Frank Gehry. The museum presents and interprets works of art, offering exhibitions that place art within relevant cultural, social and historical contexts. A teaching museum for the University of Minnesota and the community, the Weisman provides a fresh, engaging arts experience through an array of programs and a changing schedule of exhibitions. Learn more at wam.umn.edu.

SCHOLARSHIPS

MCAD MSAA Scholarships Since 1886, the Minneapolis College of Art and Design—a private, nonprofit four-year and postgraduate college—has been the preeminent art and design educator in the region. MCAD is pleased to offer a Minnesota Scholastic Art Awards Scholarship to selected students who have already applied to MCAD and been admitted by our December 1 Early Action deadline.

This scholarship raises their current scholarship to the highest amount possible. Additional full scholarships are given out to Gold Key winners for our Pre-College classes (online or in person).

Wet Paint Inclusion Scholarships The Department of Art at the University of Minnesota is pleased to announce the creation of a new scholarship, the Wet Paint Inclusion Scholarship. This scholarship has been made possible through the generosity of Wet Paint Artist Materials & Framing of St. Paul. Students will be considered for this award if they are undergraduate degree-seeking students, enrolled full-time in the College of Liberal Arts (CLA) with an interest in studying art.

The 2021-2022 scholarship was made possible by Wet Paint Artist Materials & Framing of St. Paul.

The 2022-2023 scholarship was made possible by Wet Paint Artist Materials & Framing of St. Paul, Beth Bergman, Sandra Lucia Castaneda and David E. Keller.

RESOURCES

Arts ARE Education Arts ARE Education is a new national campaign in support of arts education for all students. They are asking community members, educators, and students to sign a pledge in support of sustainable, equitable access to arts education programs for students. In addition to, encouraging districts to expand curricular or co-curricular and extra-curricular instruction in all arts areas. Learn more at artsareeducation.org.

The Minnesota Scholastic Art Awards (MSAA) exhibition and awards ceremonies are made possible through the generous support of our sponsors, contributors and Art Educators of Minnesota (AEM). To learn more about how you can contribute to AEM, please visit www.aem-mn.org/donate.
